

Covered California

The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010
After the passage of national health care reform through the PPACA, California enacted legislation to establish a state agency to implement the new law, the California Health Benefit Exchange, which is operated as COVERED CALIFORNIA.

Most Americans who are presently uninsured or under-insured will soon have access to affordable healthcare.

Starting in 2014 Covered California will begin offering a range of health care coverage that will make it easier for individuals and small businesses to purchase quality health coverage.
